MUSEUM OBJECT ENTRY FORM

For items entering the museum Conditions of deposit

General

The museum will take the same care and precautions for the protection of the items(s) described overleaf, whilst they are in its custody, as it does for those in its permanent collections. Except in the case of negligence on the part of itself, its officers or employees, the museum's governing body does not accept liability for loss of, or damage to, or deterioration in, the items(s) described overleaf. No valuation indicated verbally or written on this form at the time of deposit will be admitted by the museum.

When item(s) are left at the museum for whatever reason, the second (pink) part of this form will be given to the depositor as a receipt. This must be presented when the item(s) are returned to the owner or their representative. Both it and the museum part of the form (white) will then be signed by the person receiving the item(s) to acknowledge their receipt in a satisfactory condition. The owner (or the owner's representative) and the museum will retain their respective parts of the form.

Enquiries & Identifications

Neither the museum's governing body nor its officers or employees can accept any responsibility whatsoever for an opinion that may be expressed on items submitted for examination. Opinions may be given only to the owner of an item or to the representative of the owner.

Museum staff are not authorized to give valuations to assist in the disposal of private property, or express opinions regarding the merits of business firms.

It is the depositor's responsibility to collect the item(s) described overleaf and left for identification within 4 weeks of the date of the form. In the event of the item(s) not being collected within that period, the museum's governing body reserves the right to dispose of the item(s) as it thinks fit after a period of 4 months from the date of the form.

Acquisitions

The museum has a collecting policy which limits those items which it may acquire. Not all offers of loans, gifts or sales can be taken up. If the museum's governing body does not accept such an offer, the owner will be advised in writing. In the event of the item(s) not being collected within 4 months of the date of this form, the museum's governing body reserves the right to dispose of the item(s) as it thinks fit.

In the case of acquisition by the museum's governing body of the item(s) described overleaf by gift or sale, the owner (or the person authorized to act on behalf of the owner) transfers to the museum's governing body absolute ownership of those items together with any rights of copyright or reproduction held by the owner in respect of those items, without condition other than that the governing body will hold the items on trust for use by its museum for educational purposes to the public benefit and in accordance with those provisions of the Museum Accreditation Standard in force at the time of the gift.

This form acts as a first receipt for the material offered for loan. If accepted, loan items will be subject to a separate loan agreement to which additional conditions (including a specific return date and agreed valuation) will apply. Loans are never accepted for an indefinite period, but may be renewed.

Special conditions

If special conditions additional to the above are agreed between the museum and the owner/depositor these should be recorded on a separate sheet to which the owner/depositor and an authorized museum representative must both be signatories.
