

Colonel Ed Butterworth ADC

Colonel Ed Butterworth ADC was commissioned into the Army Air Corps in 1995 after studying Zoology at Royal Holloway, University of London. His career has spanned operational, command and staff appointments across the UK and overseas, including operational tours supporting operations in Iraq, Afghanistan and Northern Ireland. He commanded 5 Regiment AAC and the Aviation Reconnaissance Force. Still serving, as Colonel AAC he is responsible for 'cradle to grave' support of the officers and soldiers of the AAC covering recruiting, in service personnel and training and then veterans, commemoration and heritage for Army Aviation. He is married with three children.