

Why I volunteer at the Army Flying Museum

My name is Andy Bryant, I'm a British Army Veteran and have been a Volunteer Explainer at the Army Flying Museum since summer 2023. I came to be a volunteer through attending some of the excellent lectures hosted by the AFM and displaying there as part of living History Saturday's (with my WW2 Living History group "Ham and Jam - British 6th Airborne"). I love volunteering at the Museum as it's not only somewhere I can share knowledge with the public about the equipment used in Army Aviation throughout the years, but more importantly I can help keep alive the history and the stories of the men and women who served and those still serving. For me there is nothing more important, and no better place to do this.
