

Paul Beaver is an award-winning author, broadcaster, public speaker and historian. He served 27 years with the Army Air Corps (V) and the General Staff rising to the rank of Colonel. His last appointment was Colonel (Res) Joint Helicopter Command. He is a Trustee of the Army Flying Museum and the National Spitfire Project, and a former Honorary Group Captain on No 601 Squadron, Royal Auxiliary Air Force. Paul is a private pilot with flying boat and seaplane ratings.