

Caroline Hopkins

Caroline became a Trustee for the Army Flying Museum in September 2017 serving as the Treasurer.

Her experience enabling her to contribute to the governance of Army Flying Museum is from extensive financial experiences as a Chartered Accountant and partner of a local accountancy firm. There she specialises in charities and audits and is also responsible for the professional development their trainee accountants.

Caroline lives locally and is also a governor of a local primary school.