

A Little Riddle

I like dancing every day

I do not excrete even though I drink lots of water

I'm fragile and don't live for long

I'm red like rubies and as pretty as a princess

I love November best

I'm never single

I sit on a green carpet with my friends

I spring up in unusual places

I sit proudly on your chest

I remind you of heroes

What am I?

This poem was devised and co-written by members of the Army Flying Museum's youth group 'Young Eagles'. This is a youth group that the museum is running in partnership with the Army Welfare Service Community Development team at Middle Wallop, Worthy Down, Marchwood and Thorney Island. The members co-wrote and devised this to mark remembrance week with the help of children's author Conrad Burkedin.
