

Aircraft Enthusiasts Fair & Model Show

Army Flying Museum - Sunday 21st November 2021

Terms & Conditions for Model Clubs

1. The Army Flying Museum cannot accept any responsibility or liability for the security of goods or property before, during or after the fair/show.
2. The Army Flying Museum accept no liability for injury, death, loss of income, loss of business or other loss sustained including Third Party claims whilst attending the fair/show. It is recommended that Clubs have suitable Public Liability Insurance.
3. No responsibility will be accepted by the Army Flying Museum for any loss or damage, however caused, to vehicles parked on the Army Flying Museum grounds.
4. Any chairs provided and tables hired/allocated from the Army Flying Museum must be left in situ after the event. Missing tables and chairs will be invoiced to you at replacement cost.
5. The Museum will be open from 7.30am for set up. Please ensure that all stalls are manned and ready by the 10.00am start time when the Museum opens to the public.
6. The Army Flying Museum reserve the right to refuse admittance and to require exhibitors to leave immediately should any of these conditions not be obeyed.
7. Each Club Stand includes entry for 4 adults. Extra tickets must be paid for either on the day or when booking. (Please note normal museum admission is £14.00, which will be reduced to £9.00 on the day of the fair, which covers entry to both the fair and the Museum.)
8. Each Club will be allocated 2 free tables. Those Clubs wishing to expand can hire one more table for £12.00. The Army Flying Museum reserves the right to limit the number of tables per club depending on the demand and the space available.
9. Clubs may sell surplus items from their stands but must not obstruct walkways or present a hazard to members of the public. Only items connected to aviation or modelling can be sold. Clubs wishing to sell stock should register as a trader.
10. It is prohibited to hang models or merchandise or anything else from the Museum exhibits and displays or to lean anything against any of the Museum's exhibits or displays.
11. Covid - Please ensure you follow any Covid rules in operation on the 21st November 2021 for distancing, queuing, sanitising of equipment etc... If you are feeling unwell, please do not attend.
12. Due to the high cost of hiring tables, clubs who have booked to attend must endeavour to do so.
13. Completion of the booking form is taken as acceptance of the above terms and conditions.
