

Col Tim Pittaway MBE cfs

Commandant Army Aviation Centre

Prior to joining the Army Col Pittaway graduated from Southampton University with a BSc in Politics and International Relations. He commissioned into Army Air Corps from the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst in August 2000 and was awarded his Wings in October 2002.

He served in various frontline aviation roles, flying Gazelle and Apache Mk1 in 3 Regt and culminated his time with two tours of Afghanistan. Post this, he became a Qualified Helicopter Instructor and was posted 7 Regt flying Squirrel and Apache. He subsequently Command the Wildcat Fielding Sqn, 652 Sqn and 7 Regt AAC. He has over 5000 flying hrs and is the current Commandant of the Army Aviation Centre.